

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON DATA PROTECTION:

Who is the data controller for your personal data?

The controller for the filing system containing the information and/or personal data you furnish, including any data concerning health, is:

- Name and ID: MAPFRE RE, COMPAÑÍA DE REASEGUROS, S.A. CIF A78346558.
- Postal Address: Paseo de Recoletos, 25, 28004 Madrid. España.
- Data Protection Officer Contact Information: DPO.NNCC@MAPFRE.COM

What is the purpose of processing your personal data?

MAPFRE RE will process all the personal data voluntarily furnished by data subjects and the data obtained in the course of MAPFRE RE's event, including health-related, voice, and image data, as the case may be, whether collected by video, photography, forms, or any other means, for the following purposes:

- Organising the event.
- Promotion, dissemination, and publishing of the event by filming or recording images of the participants attending the event and broadcasting those images live or recorded and/or publishing them in newspapers, corporate magazines, and internal and/or outside communications media, on websites, at MAPFRE RE acts and presentations, and on social networks that are involved with MAPFRE RE in activities associated with the event.

All the data collected, and the processing and purposes referred to above, are necessary to or associated with suitable performance, implementation, and supervision of event management.

How long will we keep your personal data?

The personal data furnished will be kept for an amount of time determined based on: (i) the legal storage obligation; (ii) the duration of the event and the need to attend to any liabilities ensuing therefrom; and (iii) requests by the data subject for erasure where appropriate.

Under what legitimation is your data processed?

The legal basis for processing your data for the purposes set out in the section entitled "What is the purpose of processing your personal data?" is the consent by the data subject.

Who are the recipients of your data?

MAPFRE RE may disclose your data, including data concerning health, solely for the purposes set out in the section entitled "What is the purpose of processing your personal data?" to other insurers, reinsurers, insurance intermediaries, financial institutions, real estate brokers, or providers of services related to its field of activity that belong to the MAPFRE Group (www.mapfre.com) affiliates, and investees, the MAPFRE Foundation, government bodies, and other individuals and legal entities that also engage in any of the aforementioned activities with which the various MAPFRE Group entities may enter into a cooperation agreement, whether a formal operation is concluded or otherwise, as well as after any existing contractual relationship has ended, without being required to notify you when data are disclosed to the aforesaid recipients for the first time.

Special categories of personal data, such as data concerning health, will only be disclosed for purposes related to implementing and carrying out the event.

Furthermore, any MAPFRE Group entity (www.mapfre.com), affiliates, and investees may disclose personal data to any of the aforesaid entities for the purpose of maintaining integrated, centralised management of data subjects' relationships with the various MAPFRE Group entities, so that data subjects may benefit from being able to access their data from any of them, in all cases complying with the applicable personal data protection legislation, but without being required to notify the data subjects when data are disclosed for the first time.

Within the framework of the disclosures referred to in the preceding paragraph, international transfer of the data to third countries or international organisations may be effected, whether or not there are adequacy decisions by the European Commission for them. Any international transfers to countries that cannot guarantee a proper level of protection will only be made in exceptional cases where strictly necessary for proper performance of the relationship.

What rights do you have when you give us your data?

In the terms and scope specified in the regulations in force, all persons have the right to:

- confirm whether or not MAPFRE RE is processing personal data that may concern them and to access the personal data and any processing-related information.
- request rectification of any inaccurate data.
- request erasure of data for reasons including the data no longer being necessary for the purposes for which they were collected. In such cases, MAPFRE RE will cease processing the data, except for the exercise or defence of possible claims

- request restriction of processing of their data, in which case the data may only be processed with their consent, except for storage and use for the exercise or defence of claims, to protect the rights of another individual or legal entity, or for reasons of important public interest of the European Union or of a Member State.
- object to processing of their data, in which case MAPFRE RE will cease processing the data, except for the exercise or defence of possible claims.
- receive the personal data concerning them which they have provided to MAPFRE RE in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format or where technically feasible request MAPFRE RE to transmit them directly to another controller.
- withdraw the consent issued, as the case may be, for the purposes included in the section entitled "What is the purpose of processing your personal data?", without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

The data holders or their legal or voluntary representatives may directly exercise the aforementioned rights of access, rectification, erasure, restriction, objection, and portability by sending a written communication to PRIVACY AND DATA PROTECTION OFFICE, Carretera de Pozuelo, 52, 28222, Majadahonda, Madrid and/or a disma.ofcorpdeprivacidadyprotecciondatos@mapfre.com.

Data subjects may submit claims to the competent data protection authority using the webpage the corresponding Supervisory Authority has set up for that purpose, especially where they believe they have not obtained satisfaction in the exercise of their rights.
